BOARD OF TRUSTEES
FOR THE STATE COLLEGES

Dear Mr. Markow:

I am most pleased to send the enclosed Resolution from the Board of Trustees for the State Colleges, the governing board for Central, with an indication of its appreciation for the gift of the beautiful and rare framed maps which you presented to the College on the occasion of the dedication of Copernicus Hall. These will add immeasurably to our rare books collection and we will proudly display them in the Rare Book Room in the Elihu Burritt Library.

Thank you for your continuing interest in our College and the strong support for our program in Polish studies.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

F. Don James
President
