1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud.

2. The second part of the document outlines the specific requirements for record-keeping, including the need to maintain original documents and to keep copies of all transactions. It also discusses the importance of regular audits and the need to report any discrepancies immediately.

3. The third part of the document provides a detailed description of the record-keeping system that has been implemented. It includes a list of the types of records that are maintained and a description of the procedures used to ensure their accuracy and completeness.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the challenges of record-keeping and the steps that have been taken to address them. It includes a list of the most common problems and a description of the measures that have been implemented to prevent them from occurring.

5. The fifth part of the document provides a summary of the key findings of the study and offers recommendations for improving the record-keeping system. It includes a list of the most important areas for improvement and a description of the steps that should be taken to address them.

6. The sixth part of the document provides a list of the references that were used in the study.

7. The seventh part of the document provides a list of the appendices that are included in the document.

8. The eighth part of the document provides a list of the contact information for the authors of the document.

SECTION 10-109d of the General Statutes Substitute Senate Bill No. 1815

PUBLIC ACT NO. 73-151

AN ACT CONCERNING THE AUTHORITY TO ESTABLISH TRAFFIC REGULATIONS AND FINES ON THE GROUNDS OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

Section 1. The board of trustees of the state colleges shall appoint a committee at each campus to establish traffic and parking regulations for passenger vehicles on such campus. (1) Such traffic committee, subject to the approval of said board and of the state traffic commission, may prohibit, limit or restrict the parking of passenger vehicles, determine speed limits, restrict roads or portions thereof to one-way traffic and designate the location of crosswalks on any portion of any road or highway subject to the care, custody and control of said board of trustees, order to have erected and maintained signs designating such prohibitions or restrictions, and impose a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars upon any person who fails to comply with any such prohibition or restriction.
All fines so imposed shall be deposited to the scholarship account of said board. The board of trustees of the state colleges shall establish at each campus a committee which shall hear appeals (2) of penalties assessed for parking or traffic violations. The membership of both the committee to establish traffic and parking regulations and the committee to hear traffic violation appeals shall include student and faculty representation.

Sec. 2. The board of trustees of the regional community colleges shall appoint a committee at each campus to establish traffic and parking regulations for passenger vehicles on such campus. Such traffic committee, subject to the approval of said board and of the state traffic commission, may prohibit, limit or restrict the parking of passenger vehicles, determine speed limits, restrict roads or portions thereof to one-way traffic and designate the location of crosswalks on any portion of any road or highway subject to the care, custody and control of said board of trustees, order to have erected and maintained signs designating such prohibitions or
