RESOLUTION

concerning

TRAFFIC HAZARD ON WELLS STREET

November 5, 1976

- WHEREAS, Wells Street passes through the campus of Central Connecticut State College and, during the period when College is in session, is crossed by thousands of students each day, and
- WHEREAS, Central Connecticut State College has a special program for the disadvantaged which causes persons who are blind and persons who are in wheel chairs to cross Wells Street, and
- WHEREAS, Many pedestrians have been injured while crossing Wells Street, and
- WHEREAS, The Trustees are concerned for the safety of students, faculty, staff members and persons from the general public who must cross Wells Street often in the face of very heavy traffic, now therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, That the Board expresses its grave concern over the hazard created by Wells Street and requests the appropriate authorities take the necessary steps to close it to vehicular traffic.
