RESOLUTION

concerning

CONSTRUCTION ON NEW CAMPUS SITE
at
WESTERN CONNECTICUT STATE COLLEGE

November 7, 1977

- WHEREAS, The physical plant at Western Connecticut State College is inadequate to meet the demands now placed upon that campus, and
- WHEREAS, New buildings are needed to enable the College to meet its responsibilities to the State and to students, and
- WHEREAS, The Trustees' Executive Committee and Planning Committee have recently visited Western Connecticut State College's present campus off White Street in Danbury and the site of the new campus, and
- WHEREAS, The Trustees are aware of the difficulties associated with the present campus including parking, traffic congestion, and subsoil conditions which make multi-story buildings very expensive, and
- WHEREAS, The cost of expanding the old campus would be prohibitive, would take property off the tax rolls, and displace many persons, now therefore, be it
- RESOLVED, That the Trustees reaffirm their position that further construction is needed to enable Western Connecticut State College to carry out its mission and that all such new construction should be on the new site.
