RESOLUTION

concerning

STUDENTS' ACCIDENT AND SICKNESS INSURANCE

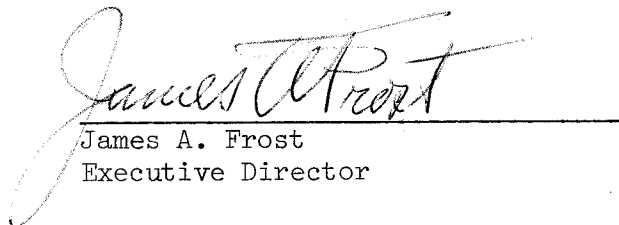

April 14, 1978

WHEREAS, The Trustees desire to continue the Student Accident and Sickness Insurance Program for the 1978-1979 academic year, and

WHEREAS, The Aetna Life Insurance Company has indicated that present benefits will be continued for that year without an increase in premium rates over those in effect for 1977-1978, be it

RESOLVED, That the present agreement with Goodwin, Loomis & Britton, Inc., for Student Accident and Sickness Insurance, is approved for renewal for the 1978-1979 academic year with the understanding that the coverage and the premium cost for such insurance shall remain the same as for 1977-1978.

Dear Mr. Loomis:

At its meeting on April 14, 1978, the Board of Trustees for the Connecticut State Colleges approved renewal of the existing agreement with your firm for student accident and sickness insurance for the 1978-79 academic year. This approval is on the understanding that coverage and premium cost for this insurance will remain the same as for 1977-78.

It is requested that you communicate directly with our four campuses in implementing this agreement.

A copy of the Board resolution is attached. We are pleased that this agreement has been extended and wish to express to you our appreciation for the excellent service which your firm and the Aetna Life Insurance Company have provided to the students of the Connecticut State Colleges.

Sincerely,
