RESOLUTION

concerning

SALARY ADJUSTMENT FOR DR. MANSON VAN B. JENNINGS

June 9, 1978

- WHEREAS, A study of salaries paid to College Presidents in ten states having systems similar to the Connecticut State Colleges reveals that stipends in Connecticut are below the average of the maximum salaries in the other states, and
- WHEREAS, The ten states included in the study are all within the twenty states having the highest per capita income, and
- WHEREAS, Connecticut ranks consistently among the top two or three states in per capita income and has a relatively high cost of living, and
- WHEREAS, The Trustees desire that the salaries of the College Presidents equate to a level in the mid-range of the maximum salaries in the other states included in the study, and
- WHEREAS, The Trustees desire that the salaries of the Connecticut State College Presidents reflect the size and complexity of the campus for which the President is responsible and reflect the quality of the professional service rendered by the President, therefore be it
- RESOLVED, That, effective June 30, 1978, the annual salary for Dr. Manson Van B. Jennings, the President of Southern Connecticut State College, shall be forty-seven thousand dollars ($47,000), with no change in fringe benefits.
