Dear Dr. Waskowitz:

On behalf of the Trustees and my colleagues at Central Connecticut State College I thank you for your many years of service as team physician to Central's football team. Your service without remuneration is a very generous act and is enormously supportive of the College and its athletes. At their meeting held on July 18 the Trustees passed the enclosed Resolution which is intended to recognize your devoted service to the College and its students.

Sincerely,

James A. Frost
Executive Director
