Office of the President

establishing

THE ALVIN B. WOOD SCHOLARSHIP

in the

CONNECTICUT STATE UNIVERSITY

October 5, 1990

WHEREAS: Mr. Alvin B. Wood is the only member of the Board of Trustees of the Connecticut State University who has served continuously on the Board for the entire twenty-five years of its existence, having initially been appointed by Governor Dempsey in 1965, and

WHEREAS: Mr. Wood's insightful contributions to the work of the Board, his commitment, to the principle of equality of opportunity, his dedication to the intellectual ideals of a university as a place of free inquiry and service to society, and his humane regard for people everywhere have made him a vastly respected and admired member of the University community, and

WHEREAS: Mr. Wood's professional life as a teacher and principal in the Hartford Public School system, his membership on the Bloomfield Town Council, the Bloomfield Interracial Commission, and the State Scholarship Commission, his service to the Baptist Church both on the local and national level, and his commitment to the wonderful family which he and his wife Bea have raised make him an inspiration to friends and fellow citizens, now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED That the Board of Trustees of the Connecticut State University is honored to establish an Alvin B. Wood Scholarship which, under guidelines developed and approved by the 25th Anniversary Scholarship Committee, will be awarded to minority students on all four campuses of the Connecticut State University, and be it

RESOLVED That the Board of Trustees extends its congratulations to the Wood family and expresses its affection and regard to Al.
