During the 1990 Fall Semester, I received an Apple grant which included a Mac IIci, high resolution monitor, and extended keyboard. According to Apple's Academic Development Donation Program, the total value of this donation is $7,897.00.

Karen Beyard has informed me that this gift needs to be formally accepted by the CSU Board of Trustees. I am therefore informing you about this grant so that your office may take care of the necessary formalities.

I am now using this computer to create a multimedia knowledge base for the Intro American Government course. I will let you know of my progress from time to time.
