Dear Mr. Scrimgeour:

PLEASE NOTE: The approximate date of publication is indicated on the enclosed contract/acknowledgment page, stamped "PLEASE SIGN AND RETURN."

Our permission request is for non-exclusive, English-language use in the World market, in future custom editions, in electronic presentations, and in incidental material publicizing these volumes. We will also include copyright and reprint rights information in a special appendix listing all the periodicals and books for which permission has been obtained. Please see the enclosed acknowledgment(s) and advise us of any changes. The bibliographical citation will appear at the beginning of the material exactly as indicated on the enclosed manuscript.

TWENTIETH-CENTURY LITERARY CRITICISM (TCLC), edited by Marie Lazarri, features long excerpts from the best criticism on the great novelists, poets and playwrights of 1900 to 1959--the era most frequently studied in high school and college literature courses. TCLC is published in a clothbound text edition of about 450 double-column pages.

Please indicate your approval of this request by signing in the space provided, attaching any other instructions necessary to confirm permission. If you have any questions, feel free to call us collect or at our toll-free number listed above. If you prefer, you may fax a reply to one of the numbers listed above.

Our press date is approaching soon. We hope you will be able to reply before the date given. If you are not the copyright holder, please forward our request to the appropriate person and indicate to us where the request has been sent.

Thank you for your interest in and cooperation with our publications.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Arnold
