

RESOLUTION

concerning

THE DEVELOPMENT OF AN IMPLEMENTATION PLAN
FOR A CSU DOCTORATE IN EDUCATION

May 8, 1998

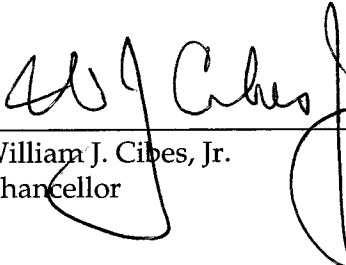

WHEREAS, Connecticut State University has a statutory mandate to "prepare the state's educators", and

WHEREAS, The Connecticut State Universities offer a variety of Masters and Sixth Year Certificate programs in their schools of education, and

WHEREAS, Recent data indicate a market need for a terminal, practitioner's doctoral degree in education, an Ed.D., which could be met by one or more of the universities within the Connecticut State University System, therefore be it

RESOLVED That the universities of the Connecticut State University System may proceed to develop an implementation plan or plans leading to a program(s) offering a doctorate in education, an Ed.D., which plan(s) shall contain provisions assuring that there be no diminution of senior faculty teaching assignments, particularly at the undergraduate level and no supplanting of senior faculty with less prepared instructors as a result of any doctoral program.

A Certified True Copy:

_____
William J. Cibes, Jr.
Chancellor